Women and Girls for careers in the built environment

Introduction

My name is Kiesha Saddler, a film maker, qualified teacher and a volunteer committee member with OLD P.

OLD P is a charitable incorporated organisation working with Women and Girls to encourage them to enter careers in the built environment.

Through our Social businesses we are able to offer volunteering, work experience and study programmes for Women and Girls to offer them Opportunities for Liberating and Developing their Potential.

As a Volunteer ,on work experience or study programme you will have a job description , be based at our Quayside Tower Hub www.quaysidetower.com and be supervised by one of our committee members .You may be working with our 'Deborah' Women led painters, decorators and home maintenance team, at our 'Don't Skip it" waste prevention project in the jewellery quarter or in the Hub with me.

We can offer weekly work experience's or placements of up to 2 months per student, ideal for a funded study programme or part of an alternative provision. Places are limited and there is a fee for each student.

To arrange a visit please call me on 07535692808 or Barbara Quarless
07807012369

Kind regards

Kiesha Sadler
